"FASHION FAKER" IS MILLIONAIRE

Reginald Spaulding Falls Heir to Vast Estate While in Prison.

CHICAGO, Dec. 12.-That Reginald as arrested in Pittsburg, November 30, cause of his efforts to obtain money om wealthy Pittsburg families on the omise of introducing them at King $1,000,000 was declared yesterday by Attorney E. M. Seymour. Spaulding's mother died in London a week ago.

Seymour returned yesterday morning from Pittsburg, where he went last Saturday to inform Spaulding of his inheritance. He added that Spaulding has a half brother in Chicago, who will get $500,000 of the estate left by the mother. Beyond stating that the Chicago half brother of Spaulding is proprietor of a department store Attorney Seymour refused to divulge his name.

Attorney Seymour says he represents Claud Lumbley, 130 The Strand, London, solicitor and barrister for the Spaulding solicitor and barrister for the Spaulding estate in South Wales and England. The estate, he said, includes a town nouse in the west end of London.

The prisoner's mother, who died last week in her town house, has been married thrice, and has seen two accruing fortunes dissipated by her son. Sae left a fortune, however, to her boy whose existence she only knew through police news. The will, which was revised by the dying mother when nows of her son's Pittsburg exploits were revealed to her by cable, showed that Spaulding's share would have been nearly $3,000,000 if he hadnt violated a solemn pledge to keep straight. The Chicago man, Seymour explained, is to be given $500,000, which is part of the money Spaulding forfeited.

The legal papers from London, which forfeited.

The legal papers from London, which proclaim Spaulding a millionaire, were signed by the prisoner in jail on Tuesday, in the presence of Autorney Seymour. Although a criminal winose picture adorns many rogues galleries, Spaulding maintained his aristocratic polse, and told his attorney he was anxious to get out of jail to get his hands on the money. He still has

Wicked Palm Up to Boston, Says Chicago

CHICAGO, Dec. 12.-The wickedes arge city in the United States is no Chicago. It is Boston. Hugo Grosser, Chicago's retiring municipa! statistician, makes the claim in his valedictory report, made public yesterday. The bulleof its population were arrested for various crimes in 1906, whereas the proportion in Chicago was only 44.8. Not only that, but during the present year only that, but during the present year

Boston has grown more wicked while Chicago has improved morally more than 50 per cent.

The statistician also has discovered that in Boston, where the saloons are strictly regulated, there is twice as much drunkenness as in Chicago.
Chicago is also the leading city for honesty, and has achieved this enviable reputation purely through the goodness. eputation purely through the goodnes of its citizens.

Chicago has only 17.6 policemen to every quare mile, whereas wicked Boston has 25.5; New York 27, and Baltimore 30.
